

MACHANEH BONIM B'INTERNET

WEEK ONE

THEME: REBELLION

מרד

REBELLIOUS YOUTH: THE PODCAST

Build a podcast all about rebellion and revolutions! You'll create different segments, research, and interview different people all about the role of youth in revolutions and why it's in our Habonim Dror DNA to be rebellious.

THE ART OF POLITICS AND THE POLITICS OF ART

In The Art of Politics and the Politics of Art you'll examine the role of art in creating change and activism, focusing on political cartoons. By the end of the chug, you'll have created your own political cartoon.

THE REVOLUTION WILL BE PHOTOGRAPHED

The revolution may not be televised, but it will be photographed! In this chug, you'll learn about the role of photojournalism in documenting historic and seemingly mundane events. You'll gain the tools to go out and document your reality and the current state of your community.

WEEK TWO

THEME: HADRACHA

הדרכה

THE RADICAL MADRICHOL

Education looks different from place to place and person to person. In the Radical Madrichol, you'll focus on understanding different systems of education and how education is in fact a radical action in creating societal change.

THE DIGITAL MADRICHOL

Learning how to lead in general is a challenge, and then add in zoom and you've got additional skills to learn. The Digital Madrichol will focus on building skills around running engaging, fun, and meaningful online programming.

THE BAREFOOT MADRICHOL

Becoming a leader isn't only about facilitating conversations and running games, it's also about bringing content to people in a way that makes sense and helps them learn and grow. The Barefoot Madrichol will set out to create and write creative and delicious recipes that anyone can recreate and teach to a friend!

WEEK THREE

THEME: JEWISH PEOPLEHOOD

העם היהודי

SHIR ECHAD

Songs are like a letter from the past. Their lyrics and melodies often reveal a lot about the historical moment when they were composed. We will listen to and learn about songs from Israel's past. In the process, we will learn how waves of immigration and Israel's changing relationship with her neighbors affected Israeli society, identity, and songs.

THE PEOPLE OF THE COOKBOOK

What is "Jewish food?" What is "Israeli food?" These questions seem simple, but ask them to a room of Jews or Israelis and you will get as many answers as there are people! In this chug, we will share about what Jewish food means to us, learn how food can capture complexities in society, and make our own cookbook that engages with these big questions. Plus, we will eat!

THIS NORTH AMERICAN JEWISH LIFE

Each of us is living out a unique Jewish story. This chug is your chance to interview people in your life about their Jewish history! We will interview our family and community members to create an original podcast.

WEEK FOUR

THEME: HABONIM DROR

THE HUMANS OF HABONIM DROR

Who are the wonderful humans who make up the Habonim Dror movement? In this chug, inspired by the viral page "Humans of New York," we'll compile photographs and stories about Habos of all ages. In the process, we'll learn more about what it's like to be in the movement in different ages and places!

BUILDERS AND DREAMERS: THE PICTURE BOOK

Builders and Dreamers is an amazing anthology of movement stories from Habo history. But it can be hard for younger chanichimot to read the stories! Together, we will convert some classic and lesser-known Habo tales into picture books, which will be read at machaneh for generations to come.

HABONIM EN ESPAÑOL

Do you speak Spanish at home or learn at school? Sign up for this chug to meet new friends from Habonim Dror in Latin America, and polish your language skills while learning about the world movement! A variety of language levels are welcome, just bring your willingness to learn.

THE HABONIM INSTITUTE

How did Socialism and Zionism first meet? What motivated the earliest movement members to form a youth movement? How did our ideology come about? Come to this chug to dig into the history behind our movement beliefs.
